lasting relationships and marriage

2/February/13.

Dear David,

Thank you very much for your letter which was well worth waiting for! We were delighted by your positive response to our proposals.

It's been a good week for a couple of the men that Anthony/Kristin and Sarah (my wife) have been "mentoring" as you will see from the enclosed. "Brian the burglar" has served repeated sentences for burglary. [redacted] is a "life" whom Sarah met up with at Elderfield but who got recalled, but things are looking more hopeful for his eventual release now that he is at HMP Ford.

We have a slight problem re timing in that Sarah & I leave on Thursday for St Brevais les Bains where we are renting a chalet for 4 weeks skiing. As we have 8 children & 8 grandchildren between us they are coming in relays!! We expect to be back in England around March 6 - probably totally exhausted!!!

After we get back I think we need to have a get together of our small group who undertake this mentoring business in order to discuss how best to take up your invitation to a meeting - we will then be back in touch via Fiona.

Thank you again for your letter - it has been and is a great boost to morale!!

Yours sincerely Rex

Dear Sarah

I've thankfully been given two days (i.e) 28/29 Jan to be allowed to take a facilitated licence visit out shopping. I'm also thanking you "my heavenly Angel" because you on your previous visit spoke to the prison officer to ask why I'd not been given any town/home visits. I suppose the prison officer you spoke to with his authority highlighted what you'd said to a more important man who then allowed decided to send across to me the allowance to take a Town/Home visit.

Thank you so much Sarah

I'm so pleased to be allowed to leave from the prison ground to venture out to the shopping area close to my home town in Southampton and it's been arranged that I can meet up with my daughter & her child my grandson
at the Bargate in Southampton city center. I'm so pleased, Sarah.

I thank you truly from my heart for all this care and support you are giving to me Sarah, you are such a kind lady.
Thank you.

I'm ending now and I just had to let you know about my given town visiting days

With love.

Rex Chester

Subject: Brian the burglar

Dearest Sarah, I had to tell you my good news. I have just been speaking to Brian the burglar after a long month's interval. He has 4 days work a week in Wales with his friend, [REDACTED]. He has a car. He earns £4 - 500 a week. [REDACTED] is well and working. It is a miracle and I am as happy about it as though I had won the football pools if they still exist. So much looking forward to seeing you on Sunday. All love to you both from the two of us, Anthony xxx.
